Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or suggest a process for making a laminate article including, providing a plurality of support templates arranged to define at least a portion of a part outline corresponding to the laminate article, providing a plurality of substantially flat, substantially rigid primary panels, securing the outer surfaces of the at least some of the plurality of primary panels to at least some of the plurality of templates such that the primary panels conform at least in part to the part outline, arranging at least one substantially flat secondary panel on the inner surfaces of the primary panels, securing a vacuum bag to the at least one primary panel to define a vacuum chamber, applying a vacuum to the vacuum chamber to remove air from between the at least one primary panel and the at least one secondary panel and thereby disperse hardenable material between the primary panel and the secondary panel, hardening the hardenable material to form the laminate article having the plurality of primary panels, the at least one secondary panel and the hardenable material, and detaching the plurality of templates from the at least one primary panel, where the outer surfaces of the plurality of primary panels form at least a portion of a finished surface of the laminate article.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
